Northside Drive-By Shooting Investigated
Monday, 11 February 2013 10:27

La Crosse police are still investigating a drive-by shooting from early this morning. Cops say two shots were fired into a house in the 22 hundred block of Kane street at about two this morning. Nobody hurt. A short chase of a stolen car later, cops arrested three. We expect more information about the shooting later today.