

52 years behind bars.....that's what a Holmen man faces at his sentencing on drug charges. After a 5 day trial and 3 hours of deliberation by a Monroe County jury, 30 year old Chris Heintz, formerly of Sparta, was convicted of conspiracy to deliver more than 50 grams of heroin as a repeat offender.

The case stemmed from the arrest and conviction of 33 year old Kelly Talsky of Sparta who was sentenced to four years in prison back in December. Talsky was a significant heroin dealer in the county.

Heintz will be sentenced at a later date. He's is in the Monroe County Jail without bond.
