

Frye Was Loved On And Off Campus

Tuesday, 19 February 2013 12:39

Onalaska police are continuing their investigating into the death of a 23 year old woman found in a ditch. Neala Frye was found Sunday night after a daylong search in Onalaska. On the UW-L Campus, where she was a very active Senior, Paula Knudson with Student Affairs says she was more than a body in a hallway.

\(Click for Audio\)

A candlelight vigil was held Monday night for Frye outside of Body & Sol in Onalaska, one of the places Frye worked. An autopsy is planned for today.