

Who says leftovers are no good. Not Ron Chamberlain, the La Crosse County Highway Commissioner. He says when it comes to salt supplies...they are in great shape.

\(Click for Audio\)

Chamberlain says even as much as snowplows have been out this year and anticipated snow coming tonight and early next week, supplies will still be in good shape come the spring.