

Two Cycle Riders Crash, One Dies

Monday, 24 May 2010 11:06

One man is dead and another is hurt, after both of them crashed while riding motorcycles together near Trempealeau last night.

In the first collision, 55-year-old Steven Meier of Trempealeau lost control of his bike, went into a ditch, and smashed into a utility pole. Meier was killed after being thrown from the cycle. His riding companion, Max Keene of Trempealeau, took a spill after seeing Meier's accident. Keene was taken to a hospital after walking to a house to get help.
