

New Eau Claire Leadership Named

Monday, 18 March 2013 09:23

Dr. James Schmidt has been recommended as the next Chancellor of the UW-Eau Claire. He currently serves as Vice President for University Advancement at Winona State University and Executive Director of the WSU Foundation Board of Trustees.

If confirmed by the full board, Schmidt will succeed former UW-Eau Claire Chancellor Brian Levin-Stankevich, who stepped down last spring to accept a new job as president of Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah.
