

13 of the state's cabinet secretaries are set to meet this week as part of the joint finance committee budget hearings. State Senator, Jennifer Shilling is on the powerful committee and says jobs and healthcare will main focal points of Governor Walkers budget.

\(Click for Audio\)

The Departments of Administration, Revenue, and Workforce Development will kick the budget talks off this morning.