

A new parking/traffic study conducted by Western Technical College was released Tuesday at the district board meeting. And Michel Pieper (PEEPER) says class schedules could be a big part of when and where students will park in the future.

\(Click for Audio\)

Nothing is expected to happen overnight, but Pieper says they now have a better gauge as to what traffic concerns face WTC in the near future.