

A 6th place ranking for Winona County in the latest County Health Rankings report by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, is not just good news. But it shows the bad news as well says county health administrator , Marry Lee Hazleton.

\(Click for Audio\)

She says it's the places that don't rank well that still need attention. Those areas included smoking, obesity and drinking water health rates.