

Remodel or tear it down. Two questions a La Crosse County board committee will look at when dealing with the administrative center in La Crosse. County Administrator Steve O'Malley says even if they chose to remodel, there would be issues.

\(Click for Audio\)

O'Malley says the committee was formed last week so don't expect any major decisions to come down the pipe anytime soon.