

Governor Scott Walker's proposal to tie funding and voucher expansion to new state report cards is too premature says State Senator, Kathleen Vinehout.

\(Click for Audio\)

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Tony Evers said the new report cards, used one year so far, also should not be used as they have not been tested yet.