

Bullying aboard Sparta school busses should be a thing of the past. At least that's what Superintendent, John Hendricks hopes after work has been done to curb the matter. A Sparta student was beaten and humiliated aboard a bus last month and Hendricks says steps have been taken to make sure that kind of thing never happens again.

\(Click for Audio\)

He says monitoring bus route schedules and bringing on 3 volunteer bus monitors soon should help alleviate what's been an ongoing problem aboard busses for awhile now.