

Warden Tyler Strelow of La Crosse calls weekends like the one Wisconsin just experienced airboat season. This is one season to avoid. More cars going through the ice. But that's why they have airboats.

\(Click for Audio\)

Warden Strelow's team has three airboats....the only team of the Wisconsin Conservation Warden Service equipped with these vessels that can cross a river of ice chunks.