

City And Loggers Meet Tonight On Lease

Tuesday, 02 April 2013 08:20

A meeting tonight between the City of La Crosse and the La Crosse Loggers baseball team could shed some light on what new lease could be coming between the two parties. Andrea Richmond heads the committee and says they want the Loggers to stay.

\(Click for Audio\)

Single game tickets went on sale Monday for the 2013 season. The Loggers were granted a one year extension last April.