

A city council committee tonight has the opportunity to support a plan to put surveillance cameras throughout downtown La Crosse. James Cherf, who represents the downtown area on the council, believes the time has come for cameras

\(Click for Audio\)

The effort of a private organization to purchase a security system for the downtown came after the double murder of Paul and AJ Petras at May's camera shop last year.