

Council Pay to Double, Expense Account to Increase

Wednesday, 10 April 2013 06:47

Salaries are poised to jump for La Crosse city council members in the coming years. The council has voted to double its pay and increase an expense account. Outgoing council member John Satory says good pay is important Council pay would double to four hundred dollars per month. An expense stipend would increase by 25 dollars. Final vote on the issue comes tomorrow.
