

Big Time Dealer Brought Down

Monday, 15 April 2013 09:03

A man police say is a substantial drug dealer in La Crosse and western

Wisconsin was busted over the weekend.

On Thursday, the La Crosse Police Departments Drug unit arrested Faron March at 500 Cass Street for delivery of cocaine. The arrest was the result of an ongoing investigation of March by the La Crosse Police department drug unit. When March was busted, he had over 74 grams of cocaine in his possession, which has a street value of $3,600.

March is from Rockford, Illinois.