

Columbia County Sheriff Dennis Richards and Portage Police Chief Ken Manthey

are advising people to be cautious if your contacted to donate to help the victims of the Boston Marathon tragedy.

Law Enforcement agencies are already dealing with fake websites that have been set up to reportedly assist the victims of the Boston Marathon. Another website taken down closely resembled the official Boston Marathon twitter site.

Sheriff Richards and Chief Manthey suggest using established charities for donations such as the American Red Cross.