

A celebration of lost lives takes place this Sunday in La Crosse.

Recent tragedies still fresh on the minds of many will be the focal point of the Workers Memorial Day event.

\(Click for Audio\)

Bill Brockmiller of the local AFL-CIO says 13 people die each day while on the job...a number that's way to high. He will be joined by local dignitaries and the public Sunday at 1pm at the Green Island Park in Laborers Grove.