

La Crosse, as you well know, has many bars and nightclubs in the downtown central business district, as well as many neighborhood bars and grills. Third Street is well known for at one time supposedly having the most bars on a one mile stretch of road in the United States. But striving is a thing of the past now. Mike Brown, who owns the Logan Bar, tells us the economy has hurt each and every one of them.

\(Click for Audio\)

Brown, who is also president of the county tavern league says things have gone down hill for many of the downtown bars since 2008.