

La Crosse School District Superintendent, Randy Nelson says he's liking what he's hearing so far now that the open enrollment deadline has passed. As for the numbers of students coming into the district next year?

\(Click for Audio\)

Nelson says Wisconsin's open enrollment program, in operation since 1998, can be a boon or bust for school districts budgets. We'll see come September.