

Local Tea Party Joins National Protest Today

Tuesday, 21 May 2013 10:01

Joining a national protest, the La Crosse Tea Party will gather outside IRS offices at the Post Office building today at noon. In a statement released today, the tea party says the protests are in response to the IRS harassment of groups like theirs. They also demand a complete congressional investigation of the IRS practice of extra attention paid to tax exempt applications of Tea Party-like groups and the resignation or termination of anyone involved.
