

Mayo Clinic's proposed 20-year, $5 billion investment plan to make its flagship campus a destination medical center is closer to becoming reality. The tax bill awaits Governor Mark Dayton's signature to become law. But...Republican Representative Steve Drazkowski says it's one part of the budget bill he did not vote for.

\(Click for Audio\)

Drazkowski questions how exactly the clinic plans to expand and how local taxpayers will contribute to the growth in Rochester. In all, Mayo Clinic plans to invest $3.5 billion in capital improvements.