

Mayo Clinic's proposed 20 year, $5 billion investment plan to make its flagship campus a destination medical center, will find $327 million for them in the Minnesota state budget. Their reaction?

\(Click for Audio\)

Mayo's Kisa Clark will head the Destination Medical Center project. In January, Mayo announced plans to invest $3.5 billion to expand its Rochester campus and leverage another $2 billion in private funds to turn the city into global destination for health care. Every clinic and hospital in the system will benefit.