

Dumpster Diving A Success

Thursday, 30 May 2013 08:19

The 2nd annual dumpster diversion program used as college students left for the semester...or forever...was a huge success this year. Andrew Londre, county board supervisor and student himself, says yes there will be a year 3.....so far.

\(Click for Audio\)

The 2 weekend garbage collection brought in five 40-yard dumpsters of stuff that would have ended up on curbs and boulevards of La Crosse.....a semi and a half of donations to Goodwill and two tons of recycled TVs and other electronics.