

At the University of Wisconsin Green Bay Tuesday, Governor Scott Walker said that a two year tuition freeze will help Wisconsin families better afford to send kids to college. He will deliver that same speech today at UW-L. Chancellor Joe Gow talked with us about a freeze.

\(Click for Audio\)

Walker will discuss the proposed tuition freeze on campus today at 2:45.