

Regent Michael Falbo of Franklin was elected President of the University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents Friday. First appointed to the Board in 2004, Falbo served as Vice President for the past year. He succeeds Regent Brent Smith in the top leadership post. Smith said a couple of changes stick out to him as he reflects back on the past nine years.

\(Click for Audio\)

One of his last moves came last week when regents unanimously approved a resolution directing UW System President Kevin Reilly to request a salary increase for all UW System employees.