

A lot of shouting and demanding by Wisconsin Senate President Mike Ellis

Wednesday during debate on 3 abortion type bills. Senator Kathleen Vinehout says it all started with her.

Vinehout says that went against an agreement forged between Democrats that stated any member that wanted to speak, could. The Alma Democrat says the same thing happened last year when Voter ID was brought up. The assembly will take up the 3 bills designed to discourage women from obtaining abortions and making the procedures more difficult to obtain.
