

Deer Report Almost Complete

Monday, 24 June 2013 04:44

Wisconsin wildlife officials are planning two more meeting's to update the public on efforts to implement a Texas researcher's recommendations for improving deer hunting. DNR Secretary, Cathy Stepp says it's not just. Dr James Kroll's report, it's yours too.

\(Click for Audio\)

The Department of Natural Resources has scheduled an online chat about the deer report to begin at noon on today. You can join in through the DNR's website or through the agency's Facebook page. The two other meetings are scheduled for later this month and one in July before the report goes to Governor Scott Walker.