

When U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin addressed the Senate Special Committee on Aging last week, she read statements from people in the La Crosse area. And not just statements written on paper, they were written on paper plates to symbolize the Meals on Wheels program. Government sequestration would make cuts to the much needed program.

\(Click for Audio\)

Baldwin shared with the committee the stories of Wisconsin seniors from the La Crosse Aging Unit in La Crosse, who sent her 40 paper plates sharing their appreciation for the Older Americans Act meals programs.