

The St. Claire Mission in La Crosse has delivered free health care to over 16 thousand patients over the past 20 years. Director Sandy Brekke says over 300 volunteers have stepped up to help the area's low income stay healthy. A bonus to the city.

\(Click for Audio\)

Individuals who qualify for care are not eligible for private, state or federal health care coverage programs, fall at or below 150% of the federal poverty guideline and reside in one of the following counties; Houston, La Crosse, Monroe, Trempealeau or Vernon. The mission will celebrate those 20 years tonight with a celebration in La Crosse.