

Holmen Woman Faces Forgery, Prostitution Charges

Monday, 01 July 2013 10:56

---

La Crosse cops say a Holmen woman didn't have any problem buying crack cocaine for a good long while. Not with her stolen book of checks. Theresa Dunwald already faced prostitution and theft charges in La Crosse county. Now the Holmen woman has additional charges for forging checks to get cash and then using that money to buy crack. She claims the checks were a gift from the victim in exchange for sex. The 71 year old victim says he has no idea who Dunwald is.