

A 22 year old Town of Campbell firefighter is back in surgery again today after injuring himself jumping off of a boat Sunday night.

Lucas Herro, was boating with friends near the Black River Beach when he dove off the back of the boat into shallow water. Herro was pulled from the water and CPR was administered. He is being treated for neck and back injuries.

Herro is a graduate of UW-Whitewater.