

Wisconsin state senator Alberta Darling at a public hearing Thursday in Madison. She has co-sponsored legislation that would significantly increase penalties for drunk driving. And tackle what the state is otherwise not dealing with terribly well

Among other things, proposed legislation would make a third offense drunk driving arrest a felony.