Friday, 02 August 2013 13:16

Something you don't see every day.....a car flipped over onto it's roof in the middle of 2nd Street in front of the Radisson.

It happened about 1:30 this afternoon when a guy reached down to get something in his car....hit a parked van then rolled his car over.

Police tell us the unnamed driver will be cited for inattentive driving and possession of drug paraphernalia. The driver climbed out of the car but was taken to a local hospital for observation.
