

Man Faces Charges for Pellet Gun Robberies

Monday, 05 August 2013 12:40

A La Crosse guy could be in court today on a couple of armed robbery charges. Cops say 29 year-old Donald Winters robbed two different people while brandishing an unloaded pellet gun this week-end. One of the victims, apparently, a woman who was going to give Winters money because she thought he needed help. Police says Winters has confessed to both crimes.