

It wasn't the last minute. But pretty close to the expiration of the current lease for the La Crosse Loggers to continue playing at Copeland Park. A new lease approved by the city council Thursday night. And one that's acceptable to the team. Tough road of negotiations, says mayor Tim Kabat

A number of changes with the new lease. Including a considerably higher rent that the team will pay to play at Copeland for the next ten years.