

High School Football Comes With Injuries

Thursday, 15 August 2013 15:28

---

One big concern as high schoolers head to the practice fields for football this year. MVC Commissioner, Terry Erickson.

\(Click for Audio\)

Erickson says the changing tides in the sports world means that contact may be different than it's been in the past. Many Wisconsin coaches said concussion concerns have meant changes in how teams prepare for the games. Practices have a lot more running and a lot less hitting.