

No rain.....no heat.....not good for farmers who are still seeing immature crops statewide.

Steve Huntzicker with the UW Extension office in La Crosse says a decision will have to be made soon.....seed.....or silage.

\(Click for Audio\)

The USDA says corn and soybeans are showing stress from a lack of moisture, particularly in northern Wisconsin.