

UW-La Crosse has not seen this many freshman coming in since 1986. Chancellor

Joe Gow made that statement this morning at the annual All-University Address. He says that really does not surprise him.

\(Click for Audio\)

Gow says as students arrive back on campus this weekend, expect more international and transfer students to be enrolled this year as well. About 2,200 new and returning UW-La Crosse students will be moving into campus residence halls Friday and Saturday.