

It was another record breaking year for Gundersen Medical Foundation's

Steppin Out in Pink fundraiser. This past Saturday, 6,600 people participated in the 8th annual walk, shattering last year's record participation of 5,600 people. The total amount of money raised?

\(Click for Audio\)

Deb Kroner with Gunderson's medical foundation said she had a feeling a record would be broken this year with the amount of people registered three weeks ago. She also says over 420 people registered this year as walk up's.