

Pair Of Fires This Morning Keeps Firefighters Busy

Wednesday, 11 September 2013 07:14

La Crosse fire fighters are battling a pair of fires this morning. First, around 7 this morning, a fire broke out at the Trane Company in La Crosse. There are reports of smoke billowing from the building.

The other fire, reported just before 8 this morning is a house fire in the 600 block of Wall Street in La Crosse. No word on the extent of that fire.
