

A Sparta woman faces charges after allegedly charging items to a business account at the All American Do It Center. Cops say 25 year old Tenille Utterback had been coming into the store on numerous occasions and charging items to the contractor's account acting as if she were an employee.

Over the weekend, police found Utterback at the store and arrested her. Receipts indicating that she had fraudulently purchased approximately $1500 worth of merchandise were found on her.

Cops also found meth, drug paraphernalia, and other prescription medications. She faces charges of Forgery, Theft, Possession of Meth, Possession of Meth Paraphernalia, Possession of a Controlled Substance, and Bail Jumping.
