

If you're an early Christmas shopper, you might want to check out a new store opening next week on the causeway in La Crosse.

The local Salvation Army branch will have a separate Christmas store set up for the holiday season. Julie Nelson from the Salvation Army says they got the idea from a thrift store in Appleton. The Salvation Army boutique will open Tuesday at 66 Copeland Avenue...featuring Christmas-themed gifts and decorations.