

50 people in the State of Wisconsin have signed up through the new health care exchange. A good part from right in this area.

\(Click for Audio\)

Greg Skempf with Gunderson Health Systems says he is not too surprised that only 36 thousand people nationwide have signed up.

\(Click for Audio\)

The recent government shutdown may have distracted some Americans from the bungled rollout of Obamacare, but a new survey shows many people are well aware of just how bad things are for the law's new insurance websites.