

Town of Holland plans on fighting the good fight against a Goliath. In this case, the developers of the 345 kilovolt Badger Coulee power line that's meant to run from Holmen to Madison. And possibly go through Holland.

\(Click for Audio\)

Brian Meeter is on the Citizens Energy Committee that is opposing the Badger Coulee line and is one of the groups hosting an open house tonight at the town hall from 5-8 to deliver more info about opposing the proposed route for the power line through the town. The CapX2020 line from Hastings has already been approved to go through the town.