

Governor Scott Walker says he's not surprised that he leads his possible

Democratic challengers by only 2 to 6 points in the latest Marquette Law School poll. But one UW-L Political Professor says he is surprised by such a small margin.

\(Click for Audio\)

UW-L Political Professor Joe Heim. The statewide Marquette poll shows that the Republican Walker has a two point lead over Mary Burke, 47 to 45 percent. He leads Senator Kathleen Vinehout 47-44, and Assembly Minority Leader Peter Barca 48-42.