

Tonight's the night.....know where to park or you'll be digging in your wallet.

La Crosse Police handed out over 950 warning notices last night for Alternate Side Parking violations.

They remind to park on the correct side of the street for alternate side parking which began last night.