

A survey being conducted by the La Crosse School District is all about communication. Questions pertain to how well the schools are communicating with the parents, how the students are learning and how easy it is for parents to get involved. And the internet makes it easier for people to respond says Randy Nelson, District Superintendent.

\(Click for Audio\)

If you don't have internet access, a paper copy can be found at all of the school buildings. Nelson hopes all surveys are done by the 15th.....results go to the school board next month.