

The La Crosse School District board set the 2013-14 tax levy at 10.97 last night, the highest it's been since 1998. Business Manager, Janet Rossiter explains the $75 increase to some folks tax bill over last year.

\(Click for Audio\)

Basically that means the less state aid...the more reliance there has been on the local tax dollar. There is $2 million more this year in the $90 million budget....but Rossiter says that's to retire debt left over from the referendums in 2008 and 2012.